How we use your data

We need to keep the data you have given us on the membership form to be able to communicate with you, maintain your safety and meet our obligations to CW for insurance purposes. We do not collect nor store any other information. You can see that data at any time – just ask. We communicate using email and also have a Facebook group you are open to join. We share data only with Canoe Wales and then only names, address and membership numbers. In joining the club you agree that we can email you occasionally with details of events and other topics of interest to club members. You can stop those emails at any time but will not receive any other communications from the club.
